Imprimatur,

J O. B R O W N E,

Vice-Can. OXON.

Oct. 27. 1761.

THE Want of a more distinct Enumeration of the Particulars contained in our valuable Manuscript Collections is, perhaps, one of the greatest Impediments to the Progress of Literature. To remedy, in some Degree, this Inconvenience, is the Design of the following Performance. A Catalogue, indeed, of these Articles has already been published by a Person whose Abilities for this Purpose were unquestionable. But as that consists of general Titles only, and is connected with others of the same Nature in a large Volume now become scarce*, it is presumed that a detached and more minute display of their Contents will be of further Service, in exciting the Curiosity, and assisting the Researches, of the Biographer, the Antiquarian and the Historian.

It cannot be expected that the curious Papers hereafter mentioned, should have escaped those Injuries to which Collections of this Kind are exposed. The Asterisks in the Margin of the Pages will point out to the Reader where any Depredations have been made. Whether these Misfortunes are owing to ungrateful Returns made to the Indulgence of the Librarians †, it will be of little Service to enquire.

* See Catalogus Manuscriptorum Angliæ, &c. fol.

† No Oath is required from Persons who consult the mss. Papers in the Museum — a Point worthy the Consideration of the Visitors.

The Statutes of the Museum subjoined to these Sheets, will shew under what Restrictions the Examination and Use of the Books are permitted. It shall be the peculiar Care of the Editor to prevent any Violation of them for the future: At the same Time, he hopes that the following Attempt will be received by his Constituents as a slender Proof of his Attention to the Duties of his Station,

To whom,

The Reverend and Worthy Visitors

of the

Ashmolean Museum,

O<sup>R</sup>. 24. 1761.

it is humbly dedicated.

N.B. At the End are the Names of those ancient Records &c. made Use of by the Author in this Collection; which was begun, says Mr. A. W. by Augustine Vincent Windsor Herald, but he dying before it was finished, his Son John carried it on. It seems to have been made ready for the Press, consists of above 900 Pages, and contains, besides the Notices of the Creations Arms Issue &c. several Anecdotes of the Lives, Sepulchral Epitaphs &c. of the Noble Families therein mentioned.

8468. 6. A Thick Folio containing an Alphabetical Ordinary, of the Arms of all or most Families in England.

Then follows a Note concerning Dr. Ralph Brownrig — A short Account of Matt. Parker Arch-Bp. — Pedigree of Sir Hen. Balle of Derbyshire Kn<sup>t</sup>. extracted from the Visitation Books of the County of Suffolk by Sir Edw. Bishe Clar. King at Arms.

As the same Person's Name occurs in different Sees, owing to his several Translations, to avoid Repetition, I have, in the foregoing Catalogue, placed him under that only where some Account is given of his Life &c.

The Author seems to have designed this Work for the Press. Mr. Wood says it is chiefly compiled from other Histories, and contains little but what was known before.

8471. 9. Hypercritica, or a Rule of Judgement for writing, or reading, our Histories; delivered in four supercensorian Addressses, by Occasion of a censorian Epistle prefixed by Sir Henry Savile Kn<sup>t</sup>. to his Edition of certain of our oldest Historians in Latin, dedicated to the late Queen Elizabeth; that according thereto a compleat Body of our Affairs, a Corpus Rerum Anglicarum, may at last, and from among ourselves, come happily forth in either of the Tongues;
a Feli-

a Felicity wanting to our Nation, now when even the Name thereof is as it were at an End.

8472. 10. Rentale Monasterii Osneyensis de Redditu in Burgo Villæ Oxoniæ, & Computus Collectorum ejusdem Redditi ab Anno MCCCCLIII. & an. Regni Regis Hen. VI. 32. ad ann. 21 Edw. IV.

Statutes relating to the Libraries of the Asbmolean Museum.

No part of the Furniture of the Museum, nor Books out of the Libraries, or Closets, shall be lent unto, or carried abroad by any Person, or Persons upon any occasion, or pretence whatsoever; unless to be repaired, delineated, or engraver.

No Member of the University under the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, is allowed the use of the Books in any of the Closets, or Libraries of the Museum.

Every Person who desires the use of the Books in the said Libraries, for all the time he continues in the University, shall, upon registering his Name, pay the Keeper ten shillings, and twelve pence to the Sub-Librarian; but if any desire it for a shorter time, let him pay the Keeper either six pence a week, or twelve pence a month.

If any Person be desirous of transcribing out of any Manuscript belonging to the said Libraries, let the Sub-Librarian transcribe it for him, at the rate of twelve pence a Sheet; but if he would rather copy it himself, or find his own Amanuensis, he may do it, paying the Sub-Librarian six pence a day for each Manuscript he peruses.

The Keeper may refuse the perusal of any Manuscript, as also the delineating of any thing in the Museum, unless the Person who desires it, produces an order signed by the Majority of the Visitors.

No Person whatever is allowed to study in any of the Libraries, except he produces an Order signed by the six Visitors: The Gallery and Natural History School being the places of course assigned for the Students.

The Under-Keeper, in the absence of the Keeper, shall in all respects have the same Power and Authority.
